

Welcome to A/W hair uncovered, an essential guide that will reveal next season's upcoming trends. Whether your speciality lies in styling or you enjoy getting creative with colour, this must-have guide will provide you with the hair trends that are set to be a hit this Autumn/Winter.

From fancy up-dos, to striking colour, this guide will inspire you to create the perfect finished look for your client, providing you with trend tips on styling, cutting and colouring. Read on to discover next season's go-to hair trends and ensure you're able to create a look your clients will love.

Sassy side-partings

This winter, it's all about the side parting, a look that's been labelled by Vogue as a runway favourite. This chic look is easy to create and is suitable for any occasion. Try it with poker-straight hair to frame the face, or couple a deep-set side parting with a hair slide or two for added glamour.

A/W hair trends

Acid hair

Brighten up the winter months with bold colour and create a fluorescent-inspired hair finish for your client. From vivid yellow to neon pink, acid hair has made an appearance at many festivals and events this summer and isn't set to disappear from the spotlight anytime soon. Not for the faint-hearted, this trend is guaranteed to make a statement.

Keeping it up-do

From messy buns to intricate plaits and braids, next season is all about the up-do. Offering both practicality and style, an up-do is a go-to look for many and most styles allow for easy, everyday wear, as well as evening elegance. For a delicate, effortless twist on a classic up-do, allow a few loose strands of hair to fall around your client's face.

Thank you

Thank you for reading this guide. We hope it's given you the inspiration you need to create the most on-trend hair looks for A/W 2017.

Want to spread the word about what's hot for next season? Join in the conversation online using the hashtag #AWBeautyTrends.