

Welcome to A/W nail trends uncovered, a guide dedicated to bringing you next season's exciting nail trends. Whether you're a nail technician, a manicurist or a student studying towards a professional nail qualification, this essential guide is guaranteed to inspire and inform, allowing you to create the perfect Autumn/Winter nail look for your client.

Next season's nail trends offer something for every taste, from bold, edgy looks that are sure to make a statement on special occasions to understated elegance, great for everyday wear. Keep reading to find out which colours, designs and styles are predicted to be at the top of the style stakes this upcoming season.

Checkerboard chic

Since becoming one of the summer's most popular prints, it's clear that gingham is here to stay. This classic print has appeared on numerous catwalks, whilst also becoming a staple trend on the high street. From simple summer dresses to statement ruffled trousers, gingham has taken over the world of fashion so why not incorporate this striking trend into your nail designs? Embrace this trend by investing in nail stencils or stamping plates, a great way to create the perfect chequered look.

A/W nail trends

Going for gold

Dubbed by fashion experts as the 'Midas touch', gold-hued nails are set to be a huge trend by the end of 2017. Perfect for holiday season, glorious gold fingertips are sure to wow during the festive period. Update your client's nails with a hint of gold glitter or opt for a classic metallic gold shade to ensure they're ready for the numerous Christmas parties, festive nights out and family get-togethers that this time of year brings.

Quirky neutrals

From soft pinks and greys to cool khaki shades, neutral nail colours are a great way to add a simple yet stylish update to any manicure. Ideal for everyday wear or sophistication for special events, neutrals are sure to be popular with clients who prefer one, versatile look to see them through every occasion. Combine multiple neutral shades to create a unique look that's sure to impress.

Thank you

Thank you for reading this guide. We hope it's given you the inspiration you need to keep your clients on trend for A/W 2017.

Want to spread the word about what's hot for next season? Join in the conversation online using the hashtag #AWBeautyTrends.